Foreword

The annual staff has attempted to recapture some of the highlights and fond memories of the happenings at Seven Springs High School during the year, 1959-1960. We can only hope that each person who looks at this book will forever use it as a constant reminder of the graduating class of 1960. May this book bring you pleasant thoughts and joyful moments through the years.

In dedicating this annual to our parents we feel that we are doing so little for those who have done so much for us. Words can never express our true gratitude and love for our parents who have been our constant companions; inspiring us, rejoicing with us, guiding us, and encouraging us when hope seemed useless. May we show our parents the real depth of our love by always conducting ourselves in such a manner as to never disappoint them in anything we ever attempt to do.

OUR LAST FAREWELL

We bid thee farewell, our dear old friend,
Farewell to one who is so dear,
Who has stood by us through thick or thin,
And proven faithful year by year.

Our minds, like tender young seeds,
Have burst into bloom under thy loving care,
Our thanks can never be expressed in words or deeds
For our words only seem bare.

As we depart, leaving teachers and friends,
We take one last look behind—
That long road that stretches, winds, and bends
Yet somehow has proven kind.

But we know we must look ahead
For there are new horizons that yet are to be crossed—
Old bridges to burn, new bridges to conquer,
The trials and goals which are to be won or lost.

So to thee we say our last farewell
Our dearest friend among all
The opportunities you have given in abundance
From your memory filled walls.

And when that last bell rings,
And we walk the last time down your halls
We'll never doubt you're the best of all,
We salute you—Seven Springs.

Class History

In September, 1948, a class of bewildered students entered the first grade under the guidance of Miss Ella Gillerlain. During our eight years of grammar school, we learned the fundamentals of education and the importance of friendship among our fellow students. Finally in May, 1956, we graduated from grammar school into a wider horizon of knowledge, high school.

We entered high school in the fall of 1956 with Mr. W. L. Creel as our homeroom teacher. We elected the following Class Officers:

President: Lou Ann Vinson
Vice-President: Rodney Barwick
Secretary: Barbara Herring
Treasurer: Linda Price
Reporter: Judy Raiford

The highlight of our freshman year was a trip of the science class to Morehead City. We had several members of the class on the basketball team and our square dance team was also very successful. Barbara Herring won the World Peace Medal and Linda Price won first place in the FHA Fashion Show. C. C. Price was president of the 4-H Club.

Mrs. J. C. Holland was our homeroom teacher in the tenth grade. Our class officers were as follows:

President: Barbara Herring
Vice-President: Judy Raiford
Secretary: Doris Crawford
Treasurer: Peggy Price
Reporter: Afaie Sutton

Judy Raiford won the Home Economics Award and Linda Price won first place in the FHA Fashion Show. Afaie Sutton was County FHA Reporter. Joyce Dale was president of the 4-H Club.

Our junior year, with Mr. Gerald Waters as our sponsor, began with the election of our class officers. They were:

President: Rodney Barwick
Vice-President: C. C. Price
Secretary: Barbara Herring
Treasurer: Judy Raiford

We selected "June Feyer" for our junior play, which was very successful. "With A Song in My Heart" was the theme for our Junior-Senior Banquet. Everyone will long remember the wonderful times we had at the banquet. Our marshals were: Linda Price and Judy Raiford, chiefs; Kaye Thompson, Joyce Dale, Rodney Barwick, and Betty Jo Brown. We were proud to have eleven members of our class in the Beta Club. Barbara Herring was County FHA Editor-of-News and president of the Seven Springs FHA Chapter. Jan Phillips was chief cheerleader and Betty Jo Brown and Judy Raiford were co-captains of the basketball team. Linda Price was Homecoming Queen and Rodney Barwick attended Boys' State at Raleigh.

Twenty-three students entered the senior class under the sponsorship of Mrs. Imogene J. Price. Our leaders this year were:

President: Barbara Herring
Vice-President: Linda Price
Secretary: Lou Ann Vinson
Treasurer: Judy Raiford
Reporter: Betty Jo Brown

The arrival of our class rings in October was a great thrill to us. We chose Karla Griffin and Billy Joe Hinson as our mascots. Our senior play, "There Goes The Bride," was very successful. Jan Phillips was president of the FHA and Doris Crawford was County FHA Editor-of-News. Lou Ann Vinson and Linda Price were co-captains of the girls' basketball team and Rodney Barwick and Glenn Lupton were co-captains of the boys' basketball team. Judy Raiford was an attendant in the Homecoming Court this year.

Finally it was graduation time and even though we had looked forward to this event for many years, we experienced mixed feelings of sadness and regret. We realized that our school days at Seven Springs were over and we faced new destinies.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Seniors of 1960, being in full possession of sound minds and some wonderful memories, do declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

To the Faculty members, we would like to leave our deepest appreciation for their efforts toward increasing our wisdom and hope that they have better luck with the next classes.

To the Juniors, we leave the job of selling ads early in hopes that they have better success than we did and, also, we hope that they will enjoy their senior year as much as we have.

To the Sophomores and Freshmen, we leave our hopes that before long they will occupy the position that we now occupy, although we know it seems to them that they will never make it.

To all the teachers, we wish to express our many thanks for the interest and understanding that they have shown us during the past years.

To Mrs. Imogene Price, our beloved teacher, we leave our love and sincere appreciation and also, a large amount of sympathy for her depressing attempts to pound knowledge into our heads. We also wish to thank her for her patience and understanding with us for the troubles we have caused her.

We bestow the following individuals and valuable personal bequest, freely and fully given, which should be used as a continuous reminder of the Seniors' generosity. We assume that these responsibilities will bring prompt and wise results.

- I, CHARLES DALY, do will my ability to learn English so well to Linwood Earl Hardy.
- I, JUDY RAIFORD, leave to my brother, Johnny, my ability to keep my mind on my studies so he'll leave the girls alone.
- I, LEO HINSON, do will my ability to do the wrong things at the wrong time to Freddy Shivar and Mike Grady.
- I, BETTY JO BROWN, will my ability to play basketball to Mary Lou Brown, in hopes she'll enjoy it as much as I have.
- I, RODNEY BARWICK, do will my ability to get stood up to Donald Stroud and Jake Price.

- I, DORIS ANN CRAWFORD, do will my ability to get a drink every day without getting caught to Faye Weaver.
- I, M. D. TURNER, do will my ability to drive the Activity bus, without pay to Donald Stroud.
- I, AFAIE SUTTON, will my ability to stay in the Beta Club to Jerry Sutton in hopes that he will make it.
- I, JOSEPH BARWICK, do will all my love to Linda Faye Stroud.
- I, JEAN PERRY, will my bookkeeping book to any unfortunate person that wants it.
- I, JOYCE DALE, do will my ability to make passing grades in physics to Jerry Dale in hopes that he will never have to use it.
- I, ROSE WARD, will my ability to Dorothy Carol Price to make some girls mad over certain boys.
- I, MARIE WALKER, will my bookkeeping book to Elna Faye Jarman.
- I, KAYE THOMPSON, do will my ability to work math to Merle Thompson because she'll need it.
- I, PEGGY PRICE, do will my quiet disposition to Linda Carmack.
- I, BARBARA HERRING, leave my sincere understanding to anyone who is editor of the school paper and the annual next year.
- I, GLENN LUPTON, will my height to Marston Barwick.
- I, JAN PHILLIPS, do hereby will my ability to find something to do during classes to anybody who can find as many excuses as I have.
- I, C. C. PRICE, will my good looks and popularity to anyone who needs it.
- I, GARY WHALEY, will my love and affection to Linda Howell.
- I, LINDA PRICE, leave my size to Marilyn Rouse in hopes that she will not be pushed about so much on the basketball court in future years.
- I, LOU ANN VINSON, do leave my deepest sympathy to anyone who takes bookkeeping.
- I, VANN HOLMES, will my ability to keep trying and finally graduate to Linwood Hardy.

Prophecy

The year is 1970; the place: Seven Springs. The occasion is a reunion of the 1960 graduating class. As I am on my way to the Springs where the reunion will be held I see a beautiful brick home set back from the road. Why, that's where LOU ANN VINSON lives with her husband and four children.

Swish! There goes GLENN LUPTON on his 1970 Ford. I see that he is being stopped by a patrolman. M. D. TURNER is giving Glenn another speeding ticket.

Upon arrival at the Springs, I meet AFAIE SUTTON who is a marriage counselor. She is well qualified since this is her third marriage. With her is JOYCE DALE. Joyce is collecting material for her latest book.

LINDA PRICE runs Garris Supermarket now. She says they're having a big sale on baby food. Linda's greatest competitor is GARY WHALEY, owner of the chain of A&P Stores.

C. C. PRICE drives up now on that tough sports car of his. I understand that he broke all records at Indianapolis last week.

Behind him is BETTY JO BROWN. It seems that her nursing career has been very successful. Betty Jo tells me that JUDY RAIFORD's twins look just like their father who is an admiral in the Navy. Judy lives at Springbank now.

A huge limousine arrives next carrying BARBARA HERRING, the first woman President. The chauffeur, by the way, is LEO HINSON. However, chauffeur is hardly the word since it's all in the family.

The principal of the new high school is the next person I see. VANN HOLMES says all his students are busy trying to cut classes these days.

Remember the girl with the nose for news? Yes, ROSE WARD is the editor of the "Seven Springs Gazette." MARIE WALKER is assistant editor. I hear that she is in Paris now, interviewing a fashion designer, JEAN PERRY.

Coming from Seven Springs Airport are RODNEY BARWICK, CHARLES DALY, and their manager, JOSEPH BARWICK. They play for the New York Yankees now. Their salary was recently raised to $150,000.00 a year.

We miss seeing one of our classmates, PEGGY PRICE. KAYE THOMPSON, now a missile expert at Cape Canaveral, tells us that Peggy was the first woman to land on the moon. It seems that she is happily settled up there now.

JAN PHILLIPS is also absent from the reunion. She is living it up right now with her new husband on a Caribbean Cruise.

Now that I have fully covered the Class Reunion, I guess it's time for me to go back to New York and report back to my editor at the New York Times. I guess this will be my last assignment since I'm getting married next month. As I look back over this reunion, I'm sure that I can report that the graduating class of 1960 has been successful.

In Appreciation

MRS. IMOGENE J. PRICE

The senior class felt that this annual could not be published without giving our sponsor, Mrs. Imogene J. Price, an expression of our sincere appreciation. We can never forget her patience and endurance when times were rugged; nor can we forget her honesty and fairness to everyone with whom she was associated. Without her cooperation the SESPRISCHOAN could never have been a success.

To everyone who has had a part in making the completion of this yearbook possible, the annual staff says a sincere "Thank You." This includes the faculty, our principal, the students, the advertisers, Kraft's Studios, Strawbridge Studios, Hunter Publishing Company, our sponsor, and everyone else who helped us, even though they were not officially on the "staff."

Publishing the annual in the spring has not been an easy task. However, we hope that future graduating classes will follow this procedure and acquire the same feeling of accomplishment as we have.

THE FUTURE IS YOURS

In this Age of Science, life is abundant. The average citizen enjoys a copious supply of industrial products, including Du Pont's "Better Things for Better Living... Through Chemistry." Each year, American Industry—through research, product development and operating improvements—continues to increase its output of goods and services. Our outlook for the future is indeed bright!

Challenges still undiscovered and opportunities unlimited await today's high school graduates who choose careers in science. In other fields, too, service to humanity will continue to nourish America's strength and freedom. Whatever you select as your life's work, best wishes for success and happiness as adult citizens.

I have enjoyed this year very much.

Betty Lou

Ms. Waters;

I have enjoyed having you for a teacher this year.

I know you have had problems putting up with the juniors this year, but as for me I think you are a nice teacher, and (we)
I do appreciate the patience you had with us during the "Senior Play". I really enjoyed being in it.

Best of luck to you, and yours, in the future.

A friend,
Suea Price

Ms. Waters,
I enjoyed having you for a teacher
this year.
